THE SEAHAM HORROR.

Seventy-Six Married Men
Known to Have Perished.

And There are 284 Fatherless
Children to Tell the Sad Tale to Future Generations.

The latest advices from the great Seaham mine explosion, up to this (Saturday) morning, says: The explosion in the Seaham coal mine makes seventy-six widows and 284 orphans. A large majority of the victims of the disaster were brought up from the mines. Before all the bodies could be removed, fire again broke out and was not extinguished until 7 o'clock. One hundred and thirty is the lowest estimate of dead, and it is estimated there were 400 horses and ponies in the mine. The bodies of twelve men brought up are frightfully disfigured. There are eleven more bodies near the pit shaft. It will be some time before the other bodies are recovered, and some may never be found, as they are burned under the debris of the explosion. Another fire has begun in No. 3 shaft, at the ventilating furnace. This will delay explorations.

From the list published, it appears 162 men and boys are missing. The latest official statement places the number of killed at 147. A broken safety lamp has been brought up from the main seam, and it is believed throws some light on the origin of the disaster. The very latest report says: Thirty corpses have been recovered from the Seaham pit up to 7 o'clock last evening, when the search was suspended for the night, in consequence of the accumulation of gas.

THE VERA CRUZ.

The Latest News from the Lost Steamer.

A dispatch from Titusville, Florida, says: The steamer that foundered at sea, off this coast, was the City of Vera Cruz, bound for Havana from New York. All lost except twelve persons, who came on shore on a life raft at Titusville. Where the letters were written is 100 miles south of Cape Canaveral and about 200 miles from the point where Mr. Owen and the other survivors were washed ashore. Litus had to pay a passing steamer ten dollars to deliver the letters at Jacksonville and have them mailed to New York. The letter from Titusville was mailed at Sanford, Fla. Titusville is on the west side of Indian river, about ten miles northward from Cape Canaveral. The Western Union telegraph company communicates with Sanford, but there is no communication between that point and Titusville, except by private conveyance.

Several persons who had friends or relatives on board the City of Vera Cruz, who called at the office to-day, had their hopes revived by the above communications. Wm. P. Dorkey, a lieutenant in the United States navy, and commander with Capt. Van Sice and in the same squadron, writes a vigorous defense of Capt. Van Sice, who was assailed by Owen, the passenger saved. The steamship City of Alexandria, sister vessel of the ill-fated Vera Cruz, left her pier in this city Havana and Mexican ports yesterday afternoon, but in accordance with orders from Alexandre & Sons, her commander dropped anchor in the lower bay on account of bad weather. The vessel at 7:30 this morning resumed her journey.

Savannah, Sept. 11.—A special to the News says the schooner Magnolia arrived at Jacksonville this afternoon, bringing John Connell, a passenger, and two others, supposed to be O. P. Silva and a Cuban passenger of the Vera Cruz. There is nothing further about the fourteen survivors reported at Titusville.

DISHEARTENED RAD.

They Stirred Up the Wrong
Animal This Time.

And are Very Sick Because He Kicks So Vigorously.

The "Old Man Eloquent"
Sailing Into the Ranks of the Puritans.

The following dispatch appeared in yesterday's Chicago Times: Indianapolis, Sept. 9.—Now that the Republicans, through their organ, the Journal, have succeeded in stirring up Gov. Hendricks, they wish they hadn't. It took considerable prodding to work him up to a beligerent state, and, despite his protestations of interest in the success of the ticket this year, there is reason to believe that if the opposition press had let him alone, he would not have enticed to any alarming extent. The Republican editors have grown so accustomed to whacking away at the old governor, however, that they could not let up on him, and so kept applying the good until he got mad and SAILED IN IN DEAD EARNEST.

That he will take an active part in the fight from this time until the polls close, admits of no question. He will no longer be cold or even passive, and the influence of the change in his demeanor is already felt. No speech of the campaign has excited the comment which has followed his attack on Garfield last Monday night. Hundreds of his party friends have called on him to personally congratulate him on the stand he took, and figuratively pat him on the back and say: "Go in, old boy; we will stand by you." Stacks of letters of the same import have been received, and the Governor finds himself a sort of hero. Mr. Hendricks' friends, to whom assurances were given that he would be tendered the portfolio of Secretary of the Interior in the event of Hancock's election, are at the turn affairs have taken. They wanted to see their old leader aroused, and were afraid he would maintain his half-hearted attitude in spite of their urgent appeals to "buckle in." It would be a heavy load for the party to carry, to have Mr. Hendricks sulk through the entire campaign, for there are thousands of good Democratic supporters of his who would understand it to mean that he did not want the affront put upon him to be forgotten, and who would act accordingly by not acting at all. This danger is now averted, much to the relief of the campaign managers, who do not underestimate his influence, and they are prepared to rejoice. The Republicans see the mistake that has been made, and to make a speech to offset the one delivered on Monday night. He will, accordingly, undertake to reply to Gov. Hendricks in this city Saturday night of this week. Documents and papers have been sent him by Gen. Garfield, and he is expected to annihilate the ex-Governor. His speech will be intended as a sort of personal explanation, with Harrison standing in place of Garfield, and for that reason much importance will be attached to his utterance.

INTENSELY GRATIFIED

GEN. BEN HARRISON HAS BEEN SUMMONED

Hon. Gil. Shanklin, secretary of state, who has returned from a missionary excursion through southern Indiana, claims to feel

SATISFIED WITH THE OUTLOOK in the river counties. He says the ranks are closing up, and that Landers will poll the full party strength in that locality, in spite of the fight which has been made against him. It is noted as a coincidence that immediately following Shanklin's visit to New Albany, Editor Given, of the Ledger-Standard, began letting up on the pork-house candidate for Governor, and ever since then he has been roaring gently as a sucking dove. September 4—Sat in d. a.w4mo

Times correspondent jocosely asked Mr. Landers what influence had been brought to bear on Mr. Given to effect this sudden and somewhat remarkable change. "By gosh!" said the great man,

"THAT MEETING OF MINE in New Albany, the other night, did the business. Twenty thousand people turned out to see me. That opened his eyes, I reckon; and I suppose he must have seen the error of his ways." The trouble in Floyd county is said to be in process of adjustment, and Jackson Landers, a brother of the Hon. Frank, is offering to bet big money that his distinguished relative will lead the ticket in that district, from which the Republicans expect so much. The Republicans say this is sheer nonsense, and the only way the Democratic majority can be kept up is by

IMPORTATION OF KENTUCKY VOTERS, and this point will be guarded against. Though expressing a firm belief that Landers will fall behind his ticket in Floyd and other southern counties, none of the moneyed Republicans have signified a willingness to accept Brother Jackson's gambling proposition. For that matter, very little money has been actually put up on the result in Indiana here at home, though an enormous business has been done in mouth-betting and bluffing. It is whiffwind against tornado, and the cheapness of it is the most attractive feature to those engaged in it. Thus far the Republicans have had things pretty much their own way, but within the past few days the Democrats have recovered their nerve, and are doing their full share of blowing. The returning confidence on the part of the leaders would seem to indicate their disbelief in the reports, which have obtained quite general circulation, to the effect that a movement is on foot within the party to and defeat him in October, but elect the remainder of the ticket. Such a result would be in reality nearly as much of a Democratic victory as the election of the whole ticket, and there are enough hard-headed Democrats in the party who hate Landers and his crowd bad enough to enter into the project with a will and carry out the programme outlined. The old campaigners, however, fear the effect of such a scheme, and have been working to defeat it for some time, and evidently with prospects of success from the way they act. A day or two ago the Republican State Central Committee caused it to be vaguely hinted that they were in possession of evidence going to prove that the Democrats were about to begin the

KNIFE LANDERS

WHOLESALE IMPORTATION

of voters from Kentucky, Missouri and Chicago. The Democratic Committee now profess to believe that this cry has been raised to cover the importation of Kentucky and Tennessee negroes into the State. If this thing keeps on it will soon become dangerous for a stranger to come into the State. He will be spotted as soon as he crosses the border, and he may consider himself in luck if he gets away alive.

BOLD ROBBERS.

A Farmer's Residence Robbed in Broad Day Light.

Last Thursday afternoon while the family of Christian Flegler, residing in Marion township, in this county, were attending the fair in this city their residence was entered by burglars who effected an entrance by cutting a pane of glass from a window in the rear of the house. They succeeded in securing $100, besides a gold ring and several other valuables. In their haste to secure their booty they overlooked $1,500 in gold and number of bank checks which were secreted in a bureau drawer. When the burglars read this, if they should happen to do so, they will, undoubtedly, commit an assault and battery upon themselves for not being more careful. There is not the slightest clew to the robbers, and although the authorities are working the matter up, it is very probable that the burglars, having obtained a good start, will be successful in their attempt to elude the clutches of the law.

Was He Foully Dealt With?

While driving to his home, near Leo, about fourteen miles from this city, last Thursday evening, Samuel Hoeler, a farmer, was thrown out of the wagon by the sinking of one of the wheels into a rut in the road. He fell on his head, and when his companions, who were in the wagon, got out to lift him up they found him dead, his neck having been broken by the fall. He was taken to his home, but the circumstances attending his death, which occurred in such a strange manner, excited the suspicions of several parties that he was foully dealt with. They came to town this morning, and informed the coroner of their suspicions and that officer procured a conveyance and left at once for the scene of the sad occurrence. Up to the hour of going to press he had not returned. The affair is certainly a very mysterious one, and will undoubtedly bear thorough investigation.

A DIRE DISASTER.

Fifty Square Miles of the Providence of Quebec Burned
Over.

Blazing Farm Houses, Grain
Fields and Forests Light up the Country.

Houseless Families Fleeing
for Their Lives--Many Burned to Death.

Quebec, Sept. 9.—One of the most terrible occurrences in the history of this region was a fire at Upton, in this province, on Monday, carrying ruin and death in its track both to man and beast. Bush fires had been numerous for some time, and little attention was given them. A high wind on Monday fanned the flames
until the inhabitants, about 3 o'clock,
saw with dismay a well of flame coming toward them with a steady sweep,
as fast as a man could run, and swallowing up everything in its course.

By four o'clock the first farm house had been reached. The fire ran along the rail fences, burning grain, and the wind sent sparks in all directions. So quickly was one farmhouse after another enveloped, that men, women and children had barely time to escape
out of its line before the fire was upon them.

As night drew on the flames increased in volume, while the wind arose, and for a space of about twelve miles in length, and covering a width of from three to four miles, the eye
rested upon nothing but roaring, crackling flames.

Families came flying into the village, shivering, in scanty dresses,
children shrieking in their terror,
cattle ran helter skelter and many burned to death.

Forest after forest was swept away,
and the smoke and flame was one compact volume, as far as the eye
could see.

From the St. Helena, St. Germain, St. Guillaume and other roads, came the fugitives, in some instances compelled to abandon vehicles and take to horses' backs. Men were obliged to throw away their coats in order to save their lives. House after house and barn after barn, filled with the fresh crops, the best known for years,
were licked up, and when the fugitives were all counted it was found there were eleven persons missing, for certain, and how many more is not yet known.

The Washington Monument--The Spanish Outrage.

Washington, Sept. 10.—One hundred and seventy-five men at work
make the vicinity of Washington monument a very busy scene. The Baltimore and Pontiac railroad has finished the switch from Long bridge via Fourteenth street to the base of the shaft, and cargoes of unhewn blocks of marble and granite arrive every day. At present, marble is coming from Maryland. Seventy-five men are at work dressing up the blocks as they arrive. Superintendent McLaughlin intends to increase the force, as soon as possible, to one hundred and twenty, which is the full capacity of the cutting sheds. The entire courses have been laid, and,
with good fortune, by this time next year, one hundred feet will be added to the height of the shaft. The outer wall of marble is laid in lime of Tiel, while the inner wall of granite is held by hydraulic Portland cement.
About forty-five memorial stones are already in place on the inner wall,
and a number of others, which now rest in the museum shed, will be set in as the architect and monumental secretary think advisable. At present masons are not at work upon the top, but the first of next week work will be begun again and continued until the 18th of December, when it is expected the weather will interfere. A full corps of stonecutters will be employed all winter, so that by spring enough stone will be ready to supply the masons until frost compels them to stop.

Secretary Everts up to this time has received no communication from the Spanish government in answer to his statement of outrages upon American vessels off the coast of Cuba. He said to-day that he was quite sanguine that an ample and acceptable explanation will be made by the Spanish authorities. It is now quite generally believed at the department of state that if these outrages did actually occur, the Spanish naval officers were excited to renewed vigilance through sensational stories in American newspapers announcing that filibustering expeditions were preparing to visit Cuba.

A Greenbacker Speaks.

The Republican organ propounds
the following question:

Why don't the Weaver and Chambers club turn out?

We can answer that question. Because we are not able to purchase music, banners and the necessary paraphernalia of a parade. If our candidate, like Garfield, had had the benefit of the back salary steal, we could,
perhaps, buy torches; or had Mr.
Weaver, like Garfield, sold his honor to De Golyer, we could purchase
white overalls; had Mr. Weaver, like Garfield, committed perjury before the Poland committee in the Credit Mobilier investigation, we could, perhaps, hire expensive music; had Mr. Weaver voted to rob the American of $600,000,000, as Mr. Garfield did in 1869, and pocketed the "sawag," he could enable us to hire a large hall; had we had a Secretary in the Treasury Department who deposited from $15,000,000 to $60,000,000 in a bank in which his family is largely interested, thereby enabling them to make $1,000,000 a year, we could have turned out and escorted the honorable gentlemen, with banners and music, with torches and white caps, with drum and fife, with uniform and martial step, to the music of the finest band to the Rink.
If the Gazette wants any further reasons we will furnish a volume.

The Kentucky State Lottery is an institution whose character has been sustained by both the State and the United States Supreme Courts. It is the oldest established lottery corporation in this country, and is officered by men of experience and integrity, who deservedly enjoy the confidence of the public. In all the many contracts with the State, and extending over a period of sixty years, every obligation has been filled to the letter. Throughout the State may be found universities, male academies, female seminaries, public works and charitable institutions, all erected and maintained by the income derived from the Old Kentucky State Lottery.

The Kentucky State Lottery Co.'s
next drawing will take place

BITTERS
IN USE
SINCE 1855

A Compound Tincture of the most valuable remedies known to the medical profession, prepared upon strictly pharmaceutical principles.

An experience of twenty-five years proves it to be the greatest Antidote to Malaria and all other Ague influences known to the world.
The only absolute cure for all Affections of the Kidneys. In Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia,
all Disorders of the Bowels, and all Affections of the Throat and Lungs, it is equally efficacious, while as a remedy for complaints peculiar to the female sex it has no equal.

NOT A BEVERAGE
But an old reliable Household Remedy, thoroughly adapted to assist nature.
It supplies tone to the stomach, reinvigorates the digestive organs, stimulates the secretions, and prevents a regular action of the bowels, enables every organ of the body to perform its allotted work regularly and without interruption.
Its highest commendations come from those who have used it longest and know it best.
Nowhere so popular as in Lancaster, Pa., where it has been in use for more than a quarter of a century.
Highly commended as a General Tonic
and Appetizer. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

Sealed proposals will be received by the Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne, until

Tuesday, September 14th, 1880,
for furnishing materials and labor and lighting the street lamps of said city for a term of two years.

Bids will be received in three forms,
viz:

1. For lighting the street lamps on the line of the coal gas mains with gas.
2. For lighting the street lamps outside of the line of the coal gas mains with gasoline.
3. For lighting the entire street lamps
of the city with gasoline.

Each bid must be accompanied by a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars,
signed by a resident of the City of Fort Wayne, conditioned that the bidder will enter into a contract in accordance with the terms of his proposal, if the work is awarded to him.

Specifications and all needed information will be furnished by the Committee

Big Fire at Huntington.

[Correspondence of the SENTINEL.]

HUNTINGTON, Sept. 10.

The plow handle and bending factory of Taylor & Griffith, at this place, burned this morning, at an early hour. A dense fog prevailed at the time of the fire, which in a great measure interfered with the work of the fire department, and the flames had gained such headway before water could be thrown that nearly all of the building burned to the ground. The engine room, which was of brick, is standing, with the exception of the roof, and it is thought that the engine and boiler is not damaged to any great extent. The other machinery, some of it very valuable, is almost a total loss. The entire loss is estimated at from $12,000 to $14,000. Insured for $5,000. One of the proprietors, Mr. Griffith, is now in New York, and no definite action in regard to rebuilding will be taken until after his return. The burning of this factory throws a large force of men out of employment.

Political Meetings.

The Hon. R. C. Bell will discuss the political issues of the day as follows:

THE CITY.

The fair is over.
Henry Colerick is again on duty.
The sporting men have left town.
Will Beeks was in town yesterday.
The Petoskey excursion left to-day.
The grand jury meets on Monday.
The City band rehearsed last night.
The First Voters drilled last night.
Quite a number went to Petoskey to-day.
Pulitzer will be here next Tuesday evening.
The excursion fever is abating in violence.
The telescope man was on hand this morning.
The Olympic will put a drama on next week.
The attendance at the fair yesterday was not large.
Taylor's campaign document was issued to-day.
What Fort Wayne most needs is a good sized fire.
The condition of W. H. Morris is much improved.
Clerk Spencer speaks in Noble county this evening.
Mace Long will speak at the Olympic to-morrow night.
There will be plenty of amusements next week.
A patent gate is being erected at the Broadway crossing.
The Howe Machine company took eight premiums at the fair.
If you want a seat at the Olympic to-morrow evening, go early.
The report that the Sunday Mail is about to change hands is untrue.
The First Voters will go to Columbia City next Wednesday evening.
The Reformed Mens' social at their hall last evening was a decided success.
The Chicago Exposition is being taken in by a goodly number of our citizens.
Some of the Fort Wayne gamblers, it is reported, were "taken in" by the visiting statesmen.
Hon. Joseph S. Dailey, of Bluffton, was in the city to-day, on his way home from Petoskey.
Gregg, the Greenback candidate for Governor of this State, will speak to-night at the court house.
Henry Colerick and Dr. Metcalf will speak in Cherubusco, Whitley county, next Wednesday.
Mrs. John Hitzfield and daughter, of Columbia City, are visiting Mrs. J. W. Sedgwick, of this city.
The "First Voters" are requested to meet at their armory, over Hill's music store, next Monday evening, for drill.
A team belonging to A. Kalbacher ran away on South Calhoun street last night and made splinters of the wagon.
A vote taken on No. 1 the other day, between this city and Warsaw, resulted as follows: Hancock, 75; Garfield, 50; Weaver, 4.
Ed. Brackenridge says he has not flopped over to the Republican party, but is with the Democracy first, last and always, and Al. Whiting knows it.
A Hancock and English pole was raised yesterday evening at Kaylor's brick yard, about one mile and a half from the city limits. Hon. R. C. Bell addressed the meeting.
Very many ladies have expressed a wish to see the Olympic. To-morrow evening, while Mason Lang is speaking, you will have an opportunity. Go early if you want a seat.
The impudence of our morning luminary passeth all understanding. Did the SENTINEL desire to purloin its market reports from its exchanges, there are many of them reaching this office containing better and more accurate reports than those to be found in the Gazette. Do not be alarmed old Grandma; we do not draw upon your columns for anything.
The most powerful appeal for morality that ever has been made in this city will be that of Mason Long, at the Olympic theatre, Sunday evening. All the lady workers of 1877 will be present. It

WOMAN'S WIT.

What it Has Done to Build Up a Business in this City.

Fort Wayne has business women as well as business men, and prominently among the former is Mrs. May McGowan, who has been the leader in her branch of trade in the West. Enterprising, shrewd and watchful, she has, by close attention to the details of her art, established a model institution in our city, which is a credit not only to Fort Wayne but to the entire State. With the ladies she is an established favorite, and there is not a fashionable lady in the city to-day who would think of going anywhere else than to Mrs. McGowan's to purchase hair goods. Her display at the fair this week was a testimonial of her enterprise and business ability. Her store is a marvel of neatness, and her daily increasing patronage is wonderful to behold. She can truthfully say that she is the leading hairdresser of Northern Indiana. No one will dispute it, for she has fully established her claims. Many persons have in the past come to this city and embarked in her same line of business with a view to crowding her out, but she has out-lived them all, and stands forth to-day, triumphant. We would earnestly request every lady to visit Mrs. McGowan's establishment and see for herself that what we here assert is true.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

N. B. Young & Co. Establish a Mammoth Clothing House.

For some time past it has been hinted that there would shortly be established in this city a large clothing house, where prices to suit the masses would be the rule. Nothing definite, however, was learned of the matter until last Monday morning, when, to the surprise of all, the building recently occupied by J. G. Fledderman, on East Main street, and which has been closed for some time, was thrown open to the public and within it was displayed a most magnificent line of foreign and domestic cloths of all descriptions. A SENTINEL reporter was detailed to examine into the matter, find out the parties connected with the enterprise, and note other important facts about the business. Accordingly he visited the place, which he found crowded with eager lookers after bargains, and sought out Mr. Young, from whom he learned that the firm consisted of himself and Mr. Evans, late of the Enterprise, more familiarly known to the public as "Evans of the Enterprise," and that it is the intention of the firm to out-rival all its competitors in class of goods, style of make-up and prices, especially the latter.
Both members of the firm are men of capital and business ability, both having resided in the city for a long time. It is superfluous almost to state that a house conducted on the principle that N. B. Young & Co. propose to run their establishment will be an unqualified success.
The SENTINEL wishes them the greatest possible measure of success in their new venture.

SAM'S SUCCESS.

Chaska's Great Notion House—A Model Establishment.

Chaska, his place of business and his low prices have become household words among the citizens of Fort Wayne. The number is very small in this city who do not know where Chaska keeps, or who have not heard of his exceedingly low prices. Mr. Chaska's stock, always up to the standard, is at present far above what it has been heretofore. The recent addition to it of an immense consignment of cloaks of all sizes and patterns makes it the finest in the city, and every lady who fails to pay a visit to Chaska's will miss a rare treat. Mr. Chaska has exerted himself to convince the public that Fort Wayne can make as good a showing of merchant enterprise as any city in the west, and that his efforts have been eminently successful is best attested by the constant crowd of purchasers which occupies his store at all times. Mr. Chaska's display at the fair was a marvel of beauty and taste, and was, probably, with one exception the most admired collection in the hall. Such enterprise as displayed by Mr. Chaska should and is being rewarded by the public. His method of treating all alike is the great secret of his success, and other merchants who are not so successful should profit by his example. His clerks are genial, accommodating persons, and, all in all, his establishment is a model one in every respect.

THE BUSY BEE HIVE.

A Institution Worthy of Patronage.

Among the various business enterprises of this city there is probably none more worthy of mention in a general way than the lively Bee Hive dry goods store of M. Frank & Co. Its proprietors named it the Bee Hive because they intended that it should be a bee hive to all intents and purposes, lively, bustling and full of business, and indeed such it has been since the first day its doors were thrown open to the public. There is probably not a lady in Fort Wayne who has not, since it opened, paid a visit to the Bee Hive, therefore, its popularity with the masses renders it unnecessary for us to enter into the details of its management and general principles. But in regard to the superb stock which is constantly carried, we would beg leave to say a word at least. Without doubt it excels any in the State. It was selected from the cream of the eastern market by Mr. Frank, who is himself an expert in matters relating to the conducting of a business like the one which he at present controls.

The stock of shawls, cloaks, dress goods, and notions of every style, variety and description, is simply superb, and no words of ours can convey any adequate idea of its immensity. We would only ask our readers to visit this immense establishment and convince themselves that what we say is true.

GOLDEN & MONAHAN.

An Enterprising Firm.

In the hat and gent's furnishing trade in this city Golden & Monahan are unquestionably the foremost dealers. They have been in business for years, and their method of doing business has won for them many warm friends, and by their industry, economy and energy have built up a trade which is second to none in the State. The stock which they have always carried has been of a superior order, and those in need of hats or caps need no urging, as a consultation of their interests will tell them to go to Golden & Monahan's.

The Fair.

Our reporter paid a visit to the grounds this morning, only to find them in a deserted condition. All the swindles, such as side shows, wheels of fortune, lotteries, etc., have all gone to new fields of labor to find fresh victims.

YESTERDAY'S RACES.

There were only two races announced for yesterday afternoon—the 2:50 trotting and the pacing races. The first was the trotting race, which resulted as below:

Alta.....	1	1	1
Tekonsha.....	0	0	0
Billy Lex.....	2	2	0

Time—2:35, 2:38, 3:40.
Tekonsha was distanced in the first heat for running. There were three entries for the pacing race, Jack, Sam Winner and Buckskin. Jack was distanced in the first heat for running. In the first heat Buckskin did some very fine pacing, but in the second and third heats he broke badly. The race was won by Sam Winner, as follows:

Jack.....	0	0	0
Sam Winner.....	2	1	1
Buckskin.....	1	2	2

Time—3:01, 3:00, 3:02.

P. F. W. & C. R. Excursion to Chicago Exposition.

The above road will run an excursion train to the Chicago Exposition on Tuesday, Sept. 14th. The train will leave this city at 12:07 p. m. and arrive at Chicago at 5:00 p. m. Fare for the round trip, $3.00. Tickets good to return on all trains making regular stops, except train No. 6, up to and including Saturday night following excursion. They will also run excursion trains on Sept. 21-28, Oct. 5, 12 and 19.

The members and officers of the Ninth Ward Hancock and English club are requested to meet at Byerline's boarding hall, on Monday evening, September 13th, at half past 7 o'clock for the purpose of making necessary arrangements to raise a pole at head quarters on Saturday evening, September 18, 1880.

PREMIUM

—ON—

FURNITURE

At the fair was awarded to

FOSTER BROS.

It was rightly awarded, too. No such display of Fine Furniture has ever before been shown at any of our annual fairs.

That Foster Brothers succeeded in carrying off the first premium is only another indication that they are beyond competition in the furniture trade of Fort Wayne.

The keep the finest and best made line of goods money can buy, and guarantee their prices to be lower than even the largest cities.

If you buy a single dollar's worth of furniture anywhere else in Fort Wayne than of FOSTER BROTHERS, you do not do justice to yourself or to your pocketbook.
